

In the spirit of privacy, cell phones should not be allowed on airplanes. This would be an invasion into the already-small space allotted to us on board. It is difficult enough to concentrate without the added noise of our seatmates trying to be heard above the general din of the engines. Please do not allow this to go forward.